LYNN WILLITS

Lynn Willits, serves as a Coordinator in the Career Services Office at the University of Missouri-St. Louis, where her primary responsibilities are to advise students in the UMSL College of Business Administration as well as students majoring in Economics and Computer Science.

Ms. Willits has enjoyed a long career in Career Services working throughout Missouri at Avila University, Missouri Western State University, Missouri State University, Maryville University and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. She began her career path as a music educator in southern Missouri.

Lynn holds a Master of Education in Counseling and Personnel Services/Guidance and Counseling and a Bachelor of Science in Education, Vocal and Instrumental Music, both from the University of Missouri-Columbia.