The Chancellor’s Retiree of the Year Awards focus on the accomplishments of former UMSL employees, after their retirement. These accomplishments may involve volunteer service to the University, civic and welfare services, career and professional activities, or other noteworthy accomplishments. Accomplishments prior to retirement are not considered in the selection process.

Two awards will be given: one to a faculty member and one to a staff member. Each award includes a plaque and a check.

Criteria for Candidates

- Nominees must have retired from UMSL before January 1, 2017.
- Recipients are expected to attend the annual Chancellor’s State of the University Address to receive the award.
- Nominees must be fully retired from UMSL and not in any paid University position since January 1, 2017.

Retiree of the Year Awards

Purpose
1. To recognize and reward university retirees for extraordinary achievements during their retirement period of at least five years.
2. To enhance the recognition of the accomplishments of university retirees.
3. To encourage retirees to engage in significant activities that contribute to the welfare of the community.

Award

The Chancellor of the University of Missouri-St. Louis will present two UMSL retiree awards: One for a retired staff member and one for a retired faculty member. The stipend for each award is $1000.

Eligibility

The selection criteria focus on the accomplishments of a retiree during his/her retirement period of at least five years. Accomplishments prior to retirement have no bearing on the selection process. These accomplishments may involve service to UMSL, career or professional activities, volunteer civic or welfare services or other achievements you believe the committee should consider. Nominees must have completely retired from UMSL before January 1, 2016 and be expected to attend the annual Chancellor’s State of the University Address in September to receive the award.

Nominations

To nominate (or re-nominate) someone, please complete the nomination form and attach a letter providing the following information:

1. Nominee’s extraordinary accomplishments during his/her retirement
2. Personal and background information about the nominee.
3. Summary—most important reason(s) why you feel the nominee should receive a Retiree of the Year Award.
4. You are encouraged to include up to two (2) letters from others in support of your nominee.
