UMSL General Education

University of Missouri – St. Louis & Mineral Area College Transfer Guide

This Guide is intended for the use of students who plan on transferring from Mineral Area College (MAC) to the University of Missouri – St. Louis (UMSL) without a completed Associate in Arts.

MAC Courses selected from this guide must be done under advisement and approval of an UMSL Transfer Specialist. You can find information on how to contact a transfer specialist here.

How to Use This Guide

Below are lists of MAC courses. Each list corresponds to a requirement in of the UMSL General Education Program and the MAC courses on that list will transfer and fulfill all or a portion of that requirement. Unless stated otherwise, all Bachelor degree programs at UMSL include these requirements and so a student wishing to attend MAC and not complete an Associate in Arts degree can select courses from this guide to fulfill each of these requirements and know that they will apply to just about any major.

- A number listed in Parentheses, (#), following a course is the number of credit hours earned at MAC for completing that course.
- Unless stated otherwise, requirements below can be satisfied by courses passed with a D- grade or higher.
- Unless stated otherwise, a course may only satisfy one requirement.

NON-GENERAL EDUCATION PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements are not part of the UMSL General Education Program. However, many degrees at UMSL may require completion of the Cultural Diversity and Foreign Language. Contact your UMSL Transfer Specialist to find out if your selected Major does include these requirements. If so, the MAC courses listed here can satisfy them in transfer.

Cultural Diversity  1 Course

- ENG 2500 Multicultural Literature (3)
- PHI 1410 Comparative Religion (3)
- SOC 1540 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (3)

Foreign Language

Students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts degree at UMSL must complete the third-level course of a foreign language. Without placement, proficiency examination, or other exemption of coursework, this requires the completion of two prerequisite foreign language courses as well. A MAC student that completes one of the following foreign language sequences will have their UMSL Foreign Language requirement considered satisfied upon transferring.

French Sequence
- MFL 1270 Intermediate French (3)
- MFL 2130 French Composition and Conversation (3)
- MFL 2140 French Reading (3)

German Sequence
- MFL 1550 German Language and Culture I (3)
- MFL 2450 German Language and Culture II (5)
- MFL 2350 Advanced German Grammar and Reading (3)

Spanish Sequence
- MFL 1470 Elementary Spanish II (3)
- MFL 2230 Intermediate Spanish I (3)
- MFL 2250 Intermediate Spanish II (3)

Students may also elect to begin a foreign language sequence in Chinese at MAC. Completion of the following course will satisfy the first level of the Chinese language. The student would then complete the next two levels at UMSL after transferring.

Chinese Sequence
- MFL 1660 Elementary Chinese I (4)
