Greetings from the Chair:
Learn about the departmental merger among Sociology, Gerontology & Gender Studies.
Explore how cross-listed classes can enhance your degree and future profession.

The Department of Sociology, Gerontology, and Gender

Campus Address: 574 Clark Hall
Main Number: 314-516-6366  Fax Number: 314-516-7235

Sociology: 314-516-6052
Gerontology: 314-516-5421
Gender Studies: 314-516-5265

Transgender Spectrum Conference
Friday, November 4 and Saturday, November 5

Washington University in St. Louis hosts the third annual Transgender Spectrum Conference. Kids’ programming during the Saturday portion.
Registration is required: Early bird pricing until October 4
REGISTRATION and MORE DETAILS

Community-Based Research as a Service Learning Experience

Community-Based Research in Sociology (Sociology 4307) is a capstone course for majors in Sociology, and cross listed as Community-Based Research in Anthropology (Anthro 4307).

Jimmie Briggs

On September 13, UMSL students met with activist Jimmie Briggs and learned about his amazing work on projects such as Voice of Witness, the Man Up Campaign, LOVE-US, and his contributions as a lecturer consultant, human rights activist, author, and journalist.
MORE

Featured People

Leanna Depue
awarded an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree by the University of Missouri-St. Louis on May 14, 2016
MORE

Ms. Marjorie Allen
Students and faculty met with Ms. Allen, centenarian and longest serving teacher in Normandy on September 26, 2016
MORE

Janet Kagoda
Ugandan international student awarded a seat at the AAUW Student Leader Conference.
MORE