

EXPLORATORY PATHWAYS

Can't decide on a major? No worries! Students can choose a Pathway if still undecided on a major to determine what is most interesting and meaningful, while completing a variety of courses in several different subjects. This approach allows students to explore majors, but also maintain a plan for graduation.

UNIVERSITY STUDIES

University studies is required for all first-year students and those with less than 24 credit hours.

SUMMER AND INTERSESSION COURSES

Don't forget that summers and winter breaks are a way to fast-track your route to degree completion – and lighten your load during fall and spring!

Business and Geopolitics

The Business and Geopolitics Pathway is intended for students that are intrigued by markets, trade, and political issues. Students pursuing this route may have interests in domestic and international economic developments, the role that corporations and politics play in global issues, and how nonprofit agencies help bring assistance to those in need. Students can expect to learn how the world operates as a function of commerce and political affairs.

MAJORS INCLUDE: Business • Communication • Economics
International Relations • Political Science
Public Policy Administration
