Streckfus Steamboat Line

Trip No. ....

Successors to DIAMOND JO LINE STEAMERS
 GENERAL OFFICE, ST. LOUIS, MO.

B. L. No. ....

Received from Wm. D. ... 1917

SPECIAL NOTICE—In Case of OVERCHARGE or DAMAGE, Consignee will please send claim immediately, accompanied by RECEIPTED FREIGHT BILL and ORIGINAL BILL-LADING to the undersigned who will promptly adjust the same.
 JOS. STRECKFUS, Assistant Manager, St. Louis and barges, the following articles, contents unknown, marked as below, which are to be delivered in like order (the dangers of Navigation, Bridges, and all other known and unknown obstructions, Explosion, Collision and Fire while goods are in transit, or while on levees or wharfbots, or in warehouses or places of transshipment excepted), unto consignee as below, or unto an Agent or Forwarder at the port of

with the privilege of substituting any other Steamboat, and of Lightering, Towing or Reshipping. The responsibility of this Line as a common carrier under this Bill of Lading shall terminate when the goods are delivered to consignee or to depot, or warehouse at place of destination, or to next carrier. If the goods are destined to points beyond this Line, it is understood that they are received subject to the conditions of the charters and freight regulations of the Lines over which they must pass to reach their destination, and that this Line is liable only for rate of freight when freight rate is named on this Bill of Lading to points beyond this Line. And it is further especially understood that for all loss or damage occurring in transit of said property, the legal remedy shall be against the particular carrier or forwarder only, in whose custody the said property may actually be at the time of the happening thereof, it being understood that the Streckfus Steamboat Line assumes responsibility for safe carriage over its own Line only. All property will be subject to charges for reconcoerage if necessary. Freight as specified below to be paid on actual gross weight. It is further mutually understood and expressly agreed that the liability of Streckfus Steamboat Line, while goods herein described are awaiting shipment in store, warehouse or wharfboat, shall be that of a warehouseman only. In Witness Whereof, The Owner, Master, Clerk or Agent of said Boat, hath affirmed unto four Bills of Lading, all of this tenor and date, one of which being accomplished, the others to stand void.

For Account of Ed. ...
