

Academic Affairs

February 9, 2000

Teaching responsibilities

Full-time faculty will fulfill their assigned teaching responsibilities during the academic year (fall and winter semesters), except as noted below. If an assigned course does not run, for whatever reason, the affected faculty member will be assigned an extra course during the next regular semester (fall or winter) or during the next Intersession or Summer Session (if agreeable to the faculty member).